Registration Fee Scholarship Assistance Request
Application deadline Wednesday January 12, 2008

The Center for Action and Contemplation and has limited funds available for scholarship assistance with registration tuition only for this conference.
We strongly encourage all applicants to seek financial assistance from local sources (their place of ministry or their local faith community) before requesting assistance.

Please answer the following questions to assist our process.

1. How much financial assistance are you requesting?

2. What have been your attempts (and successes) at seeking assistance from your local sources?

3. Why do you believe you should be awarded funds for this event?

4. How do you hope to share with others what you gain from this experience?

5. Scholarship recipients are often asked to assist / be available to help with tasks during or after the event. Are you open to this? Yes No

We will contact you within 2 - 4 weeks to let you know if assistance will be provided.
