

The Center for Action and Contemplation invites you to its 2006 Summer Conference with

Joan Chittister, OSB & Richard Rohr, OFM

Although the Jewish prophets were the authoritative teachers of Israel, and St. Paul lists the prophet as the second most important role in the church, they are presently largely unknown and almost always undesired. The role itself is ignored in Jesus, even though he claims it.

How could this happen?

Could this be the missing link which explains much of the impotence of modern religion? Is the recovering of the prophetic role a key to church and cultural renewal? Sr. Joan Chittister and Fr. Richard Rohr will use this conference to unpack the power, the promise, and the possibility of the prophetic vocation today.
