REVIVING Our SPIRITS TRANSFORMING OUR POLITICS

October 19-21, 2007

The historic Renaissance Cleveland Hotel
Cleveland, Ohio

Come and join the growing movement to integrate faith with a fresh vision for public life!

Sojourners and the Center for Action and Contemplation invite you to

Part conference, part retreat...
Part nurturing, part networking...
Part listening, part sharing.

Plus inspirational preaching and teaching from Jim Wallis and Richard Rohr.

Reviving Our Spirits

TRANSFORMING OUR POLITICS

JOIN Jim Wallis, Richard Rohr, and Naomi Tutu for a gathering of faith-inspired people from across the country who seek to dig deeper in their faith while changing the world.

The complete program will include:

- Keynotes and book signings with Jim Wallis of Sojourners, Richard Rohr, of the Center for Action and Contemplation, and Naomi Tutu, civil rights activist and daughter of Archbishop Desmond Tutu.
- A choice of two FREE pre-conference options: the contemplative track (with body prayer, Taizé-style worship, and a labyrinth walk), or the justice track (with optional field or service trips to faith-based organizations in Cleveland).
- A public witness in solidarity with the poor on the streets of Cleveland, which is considered to be the poorest city in the United States.
- A revival featuring inspiring preaching from Jim Wallis, Paul Sadler, and music with the Prayer Warriors.
- Interactive learning sessions with Zina Jacque, Marvin McMickle, Lynne Hybels, Judy Bierbaum, Adam Taylor, and others!
- Opportunities for networking, nurturing, sharing, and listening throughout the three-day conference!

Register online at www.cacradicalgrace.org or mail in the registration form on the reverse side.
